Laundry Stove. One for heating water and smoothing irons for laundry purposes.

Fig. 1566.

Troy Laundry Stove.

The Troy laundry heater, shown in Fig. 1566, heats at one time 40 oil-irons or 80 polishing irons.

Another form has less capacity for irons, but has a large belt around it in which water is heated and whence it is conducted by pipes to the tubs.

See also Thomas Stove, Fig. 1467, p. 506, supra.