Sat'in-et Loom. A loom designed for heavy goods, such as satinsets, twills, jeans, satin stripes, checked cottonades, etc. It usually has 4 boxes at Fig. 2194.

one end. An endless chain governs and moves the heddle levers and is readily changed to any pattern without the aid of cams. It is of the open-shed type.

The cut shows a plain lathe, single shuttle loom.