A Collar of Modish Shape in Antique Filet

By MRS. BERTHA KNORR

THERE is no more popular "all-over" pattern in crochet, and none more effective than the antique or "spiderweb." Spiderweb is, of course, a relative term, its use by the cottagers being in favor for as long a time as the antique or "spiderweb." The collar illustrated is constructed at the neck, and, with a few simple shoulder-points, and decreased to the point in front. When you cannot decide whether to use the pattern as a scarf or a collar, the collar is the one that is wanted, you have only to add an extra "spiderweb" or two in the width of the collar. Make a chain of 68 stitches, turn.

1. A treble in 6th stitch, chain 2, miss 2, treble in 3 times, turn.

2. Chain 5, 2 trebles in last space of previous row and treble in treble, * chain 7, miss 2 spaces, a double in treble, 3 in space and 1 in treble, chain 7, miss 2 spaces, 4 trebles in next 4 stitches, repeat from * 4 times, chain 2, a treble in same space with last treble (to widen), turn.

3. Edge, (like 2d row to *); chain 2, miss 2, treble in 3rd and 4th chain, chain 5, 3 doubles over 4 double chain, chain 5, 3 doubles under 4 double chain, chain 5, 3 doubles under 4 double chain and treble in treble, repeat across, ending with chain 2, miss 2, 4 trebles, wide.

4. Edge: * chain 4, double in treble, in 3rd and 4th chain, 2 chains, 3 doubles, of last row, treble in 3rd and 4th chain, chain 5, a double treble in 4th of 3 doubles, chain 4, 3 doubles under chain and treble in treble, repeat across, ending with chain 2, 3 doubles, chain 4, 4 trebles, wide.

5. Edge: chain 5, a double in 2nd and 3rd chain and 1 in 3rd chain each side, chain 5, miss 3 trebles below, in 4th and 5th chain, chain 5, 3 doubles under 4 double chain, chain 5, 3 doubles under 4 double chain and treble in treble, repeat from * across, ending with chain 5, 3 doubles, chain 5, 4 trebles, wide.

6. Edge: chain 7, 3 doubles over 3 doubles and 1 in each chain, chain 7, miss 2 trebles, 4 trebles in next 4 stitches, repeat across, ending with chain 7, 4 doubles, chain 7, 4 trebles, wide.

7. As same as 6th row, only with an extra repeat.

8. Same as 5th row.
