

HEMP PALM (Trachycarpus excelsa). A palm of China and Japan, the fibre of the leaves of which is much employed in those countries for making cordage and for mats. Hats are also made of its leaves, and even cloaks and other garments for wet weather. See CHAMÆROPS.