MANGLE (Dutch mangel; connected with Ger. Mange, mangle, Icel. mangi, mangonel, from ML. manganum, from Gk. μάγανον, maganon, instrument for throwing stones). A machine for smoothing linen and cotton goods, such as tablecloths, sheets, etc., after washing, by passing between rollers. See Laundry Machinery.