FIBER FAIR

Nov. 11, 12, 13 and 14 are the dates set for the area's most reputable fiber sale, the FIBER FAIR. It is an opportunity for members to sell their work, to see the work of others and to share with weavers and lovers of fibers. The Guild comes together, shows off a little and learns a lot. Join us, Peg Meyer, Barb Bend and Joy Baird. We are open to suggestions. Any new ideas? Do you have new items for sale, such as baskets or accessories to weavings? Any artists we could invite? Look for more information in the next calendar.

There will be no Knitting Study Group the last week of September.

In October of 1983, there will be "Traditions/Transitions II" at the College of St. Catherine. This will be an important juried fiber exhibit that you might start thinking about now.

BOARD NOTES

The Board of Directors met on July 26, 1982.

The Properties Comm. brought up the problem of the many missing pieces of equipment. The needed items will be purchased before the Peter Collingwood Workshop.

Discussion of paying the Weaver coordinator gas and mileage money.

A motion was made and passed.

The Outreach Comm. has been having success finding volunteers to demonstrate at the State Fair, but more are needed.

A discussion of classes and minimum enrollment was followed by a motion to have all classes go if the teacher's salary is met. The Board will review this action at year's end. The next Board meeting will be held Aug. 26, 1982.

HELP

The Weavers Guild of Minnesota will be sponsoring the Midwest Weavers Conference in 1984. We are hoping to involve other Minnesota Guilds in this endeavor. We need your ideas and help in planning this event, NOW!

RIBBON WINNERS

We are pleased to announce the members of our Weavers Guild who participated in the Nordic Fest and received ribbons for their weavings. The annual event takes place in Decorah, Iowa, the last Fri., Sat. and Sun. in July. The whole community involves itself in the Nordic Fest. The Norwegian/American Museum, Vesterheim, is noted for being the best ethnic museum around. This year the museum had their 1st annual exhibit on weaving in the Norwegian tradition. Traditionally the museum exhibits rosemailing techniques. Judges for the weavings were Oline Bredellie, a weaver from Norway, Grete Heites, a weaver trained in Norway, and Orville Running, Professor of art. It was estimated that 60,000 people attended the Nordic Fest this year.

A 1st place blue ribbon was awarded to Marie Nodlund for her reversible jacket done in a Båt Rya technique.

Anna Smits won a red ribbon for a tablecloth in overshoot.

A white ribbon went to Cathy Ingebretsen for a pillow in the Aklejev technique.

Barbara Hamberg won a ribbon for her rug, titled, "The Sea".

Ethel Pettengill won a white ribbon for her "Two Birds" in Billedjev technique.

Runner-up: Mary Temple for a hanging in Aklejev.
Congratulations from all of us to all the ribbon winners!

MIDWEST WINNER

While we are on the subject of winners, Irene Wood won the 1st prize (the only award given in the category of complex weaves) for her 16 harness doubleweave coverlet at Midwest in Ames, Iowa this summer. Congratulations, Irene!

FROM THE PRESIDENTS

Connie Magoffin and Peg Meyer have known each other for a few years, having shared ideas, conversation and many cups of coffee. Now we are looking forward to this upcoming year in co-capacity, sharing the responsibility of president. This year is going to be exciting for us. We have the pleasure of working with an organization that offers a variety of things, be it classes, workshops, study groups or other facets. At the core of all these are the members. We feel we have the pleasure of getting to know all of you. What keeps us going is the warmth, the sharing and the knowing that we are participating in something good and positive. Speaking of good and positive, our thoughts turn to Ann Fox, past co-president. We will miss the undying efforts, energy and wisdom she has put into the Weavers Guild over the years. We know she won't be too far away for advice and help, but nevertheless, a BIG thank you to Ann from us. Now to fill those big shoes she left behind....

NEW LOOK, NEW IDEAS IN THE WEAVER

The Minnesota Weaver has incorporated two new ideas this fall, and we hope that you like them as much as we do.

The Weaver staff is planning a huge Quarterly issue with articles discussing a single subject (your suggestions are more than welcome) in most of the areas of interest of our members.

In the months that the staff is preparing the Quarterly you will receive a Guild Calendar with up-to-date information on classes, committees, special events, etc. Feel free to submit your information to either publication.

The Education Committee's Bulletins will be published and mailed with the Quarterly, and you'll be able to separate them so you can use the Bulletin and file your Quarterly for future reference.
