Fabric. A cloth made by weaving or felting.
The various names are derived from material, texture, fineness, mode of weaving, color, mode of coloring, surface-finishing, place of manufacture, etc.

"Each glossy cloth, and gauze of mantle warm,
Receives its impression; every airy wool,
Chesney, and bane, and Serge, and Alpaca,
Taffeta, and gauze, and the long countess's list
Of woolen webs."

Dun, The Fleece, 1797.
