

Dillmont, Therese de—Czecho-Slovak Embroideries

Review: Another fine DMC book from their collection of worldwide patterns. This first collection of Slav patterns, taken from ancient documents and museum examples, shows the characteristic bright colors favored in that part of the world. It is grouped into two categories: counted thread stitches and those worked over a traced pattern.