

Forty Dollars Reward.

BALTIMORE COUNTY, October 5, 1777.

RAN away, last night, from the subscriber, an English servant man, named SAMUEL PHILLIPS, a Weaver by trade, about 26 years of age, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, his grey eyes, short straight light hair, which has been cut off the top of his head, red beard, pale complexion, down look, is freckled, and most of his teeth are double. Had on an old black and white linsy under jacket, without sleeves, a country linen shirt, trousers and apron, old shoes, tied with strings, and have straps and some iron nails in the heels, an iron collar, and a small shackle on his left leg, with a ring to it. It is probable he will steal other clothes. He ran away in April last, and was taken up in May, in Bush River Neck, where he had set in for weaving, and committed to Harford gaol.....WHOEVER takes up the said servant, and secures him, so that his master gets him again, shall have Ten Dollars; if 50 miles from home, Twenty Dollars; if 50 miles, Thirty Dollars; and if 80 miles, the above reward, and reasonable charges, if brought home, paid by William Goodwin.

N. B. As he can write, he may forge a pass.

BALTIMORE: Printed by M. K. GODDARD.